The meat munching Jabberwock

Jabberwock’s viscous appearance

This killer can kill a human with one shot of its tail. It can slice you in half with its destructive tail. This is one of the creatures that can breathe flaming hot, orange fire that can melt metal. This viscious creature has teeth that is as sharp as a knife blade. This horrible creature has a neck as scaley as a snake.

The Habits

If you think the Appearance is bad DO NOT READ ON! In the heart of the Tugly woods is a graveyard in the graveyard is a crack in the crack is the Jabberwock he lay...silent there is a stench of puss a river of puss to. Everyone calls the cave death dimension.

The gross Diet

This mental beast is an Omnivore. Its favourite food is Borogoves and he likes eating their crunchy bones. It’s much better (for him). He especially loves to feast on JubJub babies. The mimsy Jabberwock keeps his cave a secret until he takes his prey to it.
